“You have to walk the walk, not just talk the talk.”

26th Sunday Year A- Mt. 21: 28-32

In the parable today we hear the younger brother tell his father: “Yes, I’ll go and work” while the older brother said: “No, I will not.” Both used words contrary to their actions. Talk is cheap. The younger brother simply didn’t live up to his words; the older brother changed his mind. The older brother had integrity; the younger brother gave valueless words to his father while having no intention at all of working. How many of us recognise ourselves in that younger brother who makes promises but fail to keep them? Or were you ever hurt by promises given and then broken. Some of us have been given sweet talk and words of love only to later discover that they were not genuine. On other occasions we were given words that have hurt us, really hurt us, not because they were nasty but because we relied on them and were later betrayed.

Today once again we are reminded that honesty and sincerity are the core of our Christian life. We need to be honest with ourselves, with others and with God. We must be fearlessly and courageously honest with God and likewise honest with ourselves. Without honesty in our business and professional lives we will fail. People will discover we are frauds. Without honesty our love relationships will collapse, our friendships will be lost, and we will end up in a hell on earth as well as in the hereafter. If we are honest with others, honest with ourselves, and honest with God then our actions will automatically follow. Talk is cheap; intentions are too often little more than wishful thinking; appearances are deceptive. Being honest and then acting in honesty are sometimes tough things to do. Sincere honesty is one of the hardest and most demanding of things about being a Christian. Are we ready to be Genuine Christians...?

Readings for 5th October 2014

1st Reading: Isaiah 5:1-7

2nd Reading: Philippians 4:6-9

Gospel: Matthew 21:33-43

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.)

We will be starting our sessions soon for catechumens (not baptised) and candidates (baptised but do not have all sacraments) for R.C.I.A. The Second Vatican Council prescribed the revision of the rite of baptism of adults and decreed that the catechumenate for adults, divided into several steps, should be restored. This means the time of the catechumenate, which is intended as a period of well-suited instruction, would be sanctified by liturgical rites to be celebrated at successive intervals of time. The Council likewise decreed that both the solemn and simple rites of adult baptism should be revised, with proper attention to the restored catechumenate.

KIDS CORNER

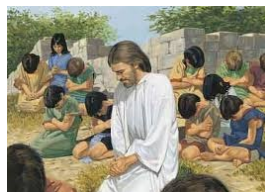

Which one did his father's will?

The Gospel is telling us today to be honest and truthful to your word. If you say yes then follow through with your promise. If your parents ask you to pick up your dirty clothes and place them in the wash basket and you say for example, "yes I will". Then the right thing to do is to do so. This is how you learn to be responsible and reliable. Jesus in the Gospels are always teaching us how to live our promise to God. If we say "yes" to God then we need to try to be honest, responsible and reliable.

Prayer:

Lord of the loving heart, may mine be loving too,
Lord of the gentle hands, may mine be gentle too,
Lord of the willing feet, may mine be willing too,
So may I grow more like to thee
In all I say or do.
Amen.

 CHUCKLE CORNER
An old nun, who was living in a convent next to a construction site, noticed the coarse language of the workers and decided to spend some time with them to correct their ways.
And so, she decided she would take her lunch and sit with the workers.
She put her sandwich in a brown bag and walked over to the spot where the men were eating.
Sporting a big smile, she walked up to the group and asked: "And, do you men know Jesus Christ?"
They shook their heads and looked at each other, very confused...
One of the workers looked up into the steelworks and yelled out, "Anybody up there know Jesus Christ?"
One of the steelworkers yelled down, "Why?"
The worker yelled back,
"Cause his mom's here with his lunch."
