Go to the ends of the World...Proclaim my name to all...

"The other is my salvation," saints in past generations said, and they understood "the other" as all people everywhere. This is the challenge we hear on Missions Sunday, which is celebrated today throughout Churches all over the world. Our Lord has not only given us a command, but also a privilege. He has honoured us with the responsibility of acting as His ambassadors throughout the world to tell his story and to share His love. Imagine, we each play an integral role in His plan of salvation for all people and that brings about our own in turn. If a parish has no awareness and consciousness of being "sent" by God to speak His words, to do His work, and to accomplish His will in this world, then it is not a Catholic Christian Parish!" We are not living up to our Catholic Christian identity if we don't fulfil this calling to "go forth" and become Christ's witnesses in the world around us.

When Jesus asked his disciples to follow him, when he asked them to lay down their lives and then sent them out to proclaim the Kingdom he was asking them to give witness to himself. As we live out this in everyday life we make ourselves available to participate in the ongoing mission of God in this world. Mission then is giving witness to who Jesus is through the proclamation of what we believe lived out in our daily actions; actions of loving God and loving others!

It is local and global – It involves our worship and devotion as well as our outreach and love to neighbour. The church becomes the foundation and anchor point for the continual retelling and celebration of the gospel story. The world, all of it becomes the context in which we live out the ongoing story of the gospel as participation in God's Mission and Ministry in the world!

KIDS CORNER

Kids Corner

Everything we have was given to us by God, who gives love with unending generosity.

How often do we remember to say "thank you" or to return just a little of what we have been given?

In the Gospel reading today the Pharisees were jealous of Jesus because he was so popular with the people, and he often criticized the Pharisees. They were expecting him to tell the people to give their money to God and not to the Romans. The Pharisees knew that anyone who did not pay their taxes was immediately arrested and punished.

Jesus answered the trick question wisely. He told the people to give back to Caesar what belonged to him, but at the same time, to give back to God what belonged to God. Jesus wanted them to return the love which God gave to them. We, too can share everything with our heavenly father by giving him the gift of ourselves: all that we are and all that we have.

Give this prayer of love to God:

Eternal God, the light of the minds that know you,

The joy of the hearts that love you,

The strength of the wills that serve you

Grant us so to know thee that we may truly love you,

So to love thee that we may fully serve you,

whom to serve is perfect freedom. Amen

Readings for 26th October 2014
 1st Reading: Exodus 22:20-26
 2nd Reading: Thessalonians 1:5-10
 Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40

Musicians, Singers, Cantors

We need musicians for John XXIII and Holy Trinity. If you can play a guitar, piano, etc, or sing we need you. We have weeks at John XXIII or Holy Trinity where we only have CD's. They are ok but it's not the same as live music. Live music brings our Liturgies to a joyous prayerful level that enhances our prayer with God. We need you to commit to a level of self-motivation and reliability. Please if you ever thought to yourself, I would love to sing, play an instrument or both Talk with Fr Manu or Grace Healey.

Thank you to all of you that are already committed in ministering at our liturgies, we appreciate your dedication and commitment.

LAY MINISTRY

Para Hills/ Modbury Parish is a vibrant parish - we have dedicated parishioners who volunteer in Lay Minister roles. If you have a gift or talent that you wish to share with your parish please let us know. We always need more Lay Ministers as Eucharist Ministers, Readers, Welcomers, Commentators.

We are desperate for projectionists at both John XXIII and Holy Trinity. We really need to share this commitment. The power points are part of our Liturgy and we need more people to operate this Ministry. We need religion instruction Teachers and Children's liturgy ministers. If you have ever thought to yourself, I would love to be..... Talk with Fr Manu or Grace Healey.

Community Garden News!

Next Community Garden gathering morning will be on Saturday 25th October, 9 -12 p.m. We have planted some silverbeet. If you have a recipe with silverbeet as an ingredient, please email me and we will advertise it in the Bulletin. Hopefully our crop will do well.

CHUCKLE CORNER

Through the pitch-black night, the captain sees a light dead ahead on a collision course with his ship. He sends a signal: "Change your course 10 degrees east." The light signals back: "Change yours, 10 degrees west." Angry, the captain sends: "I'm a navy captain! Change your course, sir!" "I'm a seaman, second class," comes the reply. "Change your course, sir." Now the captain is furious. "I'm a battleship! I'm not changing course!" There is one last reply. "I'm a lighthouse. Your call."
