GOSPEL LUKE 7:36-8:3

We often have the impression that Jesus frequently ate with sinners and outcasts. Whilst this is undoubtedly true (the gospels record the Pharisees as being scandalised by Jesus eating with sinners and tax collectors), many of the gospel stories show Jesus dining with the rich and powerful as well. Today's gospel is an example of this. Jesus is invited to dine at the house of Simon, the Pharisee. However, as in all of these meals with the rich and powerful, the incident serves as an opportunity for Jesus to give his host a lesson about those who are not regarded as welcome at such events. Jesus chastises Simon that he failed to provide his guest with water to wash his feet, a kiss of greeting, or oil for his head. Whilst this may seem odd to us today, these actions were all the basic requirements of Jewish hospitality. They were basic expectations that a host should fulfil for any guest entering their house – signs of welcome, acceptance and hospitality. Simon has performed none of the duties of hospitality. As a Pharisee, he would normally be a stickler for rules and yet in this instance he has completely overlooked the rules of Jewish hospitality. Is this a deliberate snub to Jesus? Is it the beginning of the hostility of the Pharisees towards Jesus? Rather than Simon the host, a sinful woman who has snuck into the meal performs the actions of hospitality. Jesus points out to Simon that for all his concerns about status and right and wrong actions, it is a woman whom Simon would dismiss as unclean and unworthy who is the one that truly welcomes Jesus and his message.

SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM 2016

The Parish Sacramental Children will be receiving their Holy Eucharist on the 25th of June 2016 at the 6 p.m. Mass.

We have been forming a parish, school connection with Gleeson College and they have kindly offered to plan the Liturgy for this Mass at St John XXIII for the 25th of June which happens to be for our Sacramental Children. Adam Cibich, Aprim of Gleeson College will be preparing and providing the students to read, sing, altar serve and welcome.

We will still need the rostered Collectors and some Ministers of the Eucharist for this night.

We would love to have some volunteers to serve coffee, tea and cake. The cake will be donated by Gleeson College.

In the same week on the 21st June at 7 p.m. the children will be receiving their Confirmation Sacrament and the children from St Francis Xavier will be singing. We also need some volunteers for this evening to serve coffee, tea and help with supper. The children are asked to bring a plate but we do seem to be a little short some years. If we could have some parishioners donate a plate and if there is anyone who would like to make a cake this would be appreciated. Please contact the office on 82647590 if you can help.

We are so privileged to be associated with these two schools as we do not have a Catholic school attached to either church. Giving the students an opportunity to share their talents and gifts with us will be very special especially on these two very special sacraments, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist. Friends and families all are welcome.

Please pray for our children, parents and teachers preparing for sacraments.

Grace Healey Pastoral Associate.

Luke 7:36-8:3

Jewish rituals and customs were very different to our hospitality rituals now. The woman in this story was thought to be a sinful woman but it was she who ultimately welcomed Jesus and showed her love for him. Jesus offered her forgiveness and told her to go in peace. The woman in the story was generous in her love and hospitality- is there someone we can show our care and concern for this week? Oil has always been a precious symbol for anointing of Royalty and was very expensive, which demonstrates the love and compassion this woman had for Jesus.

Holy oil/Chrism is used in our Baptismal Sacrament. Holy oil is used in our Sacrament of Confirmation, Ordination and Healing Sacrament. Holy oil is very precious in our Catholic Rituals at the present time.

Prayer:

Help us Lord, to come to you and ask for your forgiveness so that we will know the joy of making our peace with you.

Amen

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Lord, forgive the wrong I have done.

Community Garden

This rain is great for our Community Garden. The plants are looking very healthy. I would like to let you know our money situation at the moment. We had $227.35 and we have sold some more produce last week, an amount of $38.20 raised. Now we have $265.55 less $828.00 for the pump leaves us a balance of $562.45 to raise. The fund raiser for the 18th June will be contributing to our shortfall. If you are able to come to this dinner on the 18th of June it would be a great community event and purposeful fundraiser.

Our next Community morning get together is on the 18th June 2016. We start at 9.30 to 11.30. Bring gloves, raincoat, boots, and hat. You may need them!!!

Grace Healey.
