DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Your participation made the day special and meaningful. May God bless you all.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL The Road to Emmaus

The report of the encounter with Christ on the road to Emmaus may be one of the best known resurrection stories. The disciples were probably returning from the celebration of Passover. At first they do not recognise Jesus. However, they are not reluctant to describe the events of the past few days, and to admit that they had considered Jesus the fulfillment of their messianic expectations. As Jesus shows how the Scriptures really pointed to him, their hearts burn within them. Their religious tradition was being interpreted for them in a new and exciting way. Finally, it is in the breaking of the bread that their eyes are opened, and they recognise Jesus. The revelatory unfolding is now complete.
