Take up the Mission

The instructions of Jesus in today's Gospel to the seventy-two missionaries, is an invitation to each one of us for a mission to carry out. There were just a handful of followers in Jesus' day to preach the Good News, but today there are over one billion Roman Catholics and about half a billion other Christians (in 30,000 denominations!) who accept Jesus as "Lord" and "Saviour." So there are 1.5 billion missionaries in a world of six billion people. A recent survey asked the question, "Why do adults join the Catholic Church in spite of the scandals publicised in the media?" 75% of the new adult converts to the Catholic Church reported that they were attracted by a personal invitation from a Catholic who had a lively relationship with Christ and his Church. As faithful Catholics, it is our responsibility to attract others to the Church and thus to Christ our Lord. It's a task entrusted to each of us at the time of our baptism. We need to consider it as our responsibility and just as the responsibility of the priest and religious or a handful of other members who are very active in the proclamation of faith. So we need to make sure that we do not miss the current opportunities to be apostles in everyday life by our words and deeds. We live in a very complex world. Therefore, in our practice of faith we need to be careful to avoid giving counter-witness.

Cont..

The Church is founded on the rock of Peter, a humble, uneducated fisherman who died for the Lord he loved. Compare his Faith and heroic witnessing with the “supermarket Catholicism” of our modern day society: Christians who publicly proclaim their “Catholicism,” yet support abortion, gay marriage, human cloning and experimentation with human embryos. We should not be “Catholics for a Free Choice” who oppose anything proposed by the Church, including the most basic right to life. Nor should we be armchair Catholics, spiritual weekend warriors, “cafeteria Catholics” or “barely-make-it-to-Mass” members of the Church, who bear counter-witness to the values proclaimed by Christ. Instead, let us become heralds of the Kingdom in our own homes by treating each other with profound respect. Then let us teach it to the new generation. When we respect each other and, thus, teach others to do the same, all those who mingle with us will experience the Kingdom in our families and in the society that we live. Thus we will prove to the world that the Kingdom of God is God’s rule in our hearts enabling us to do His will.

THANKS A LOT AND GOD BLESS YOU.....

As it was already made known in the last bulletin Grace Healey is resigning from the office of the Pastoral Associate in the parish and is taking up her new assignment as the Catholic Chaplain at the Royal Adelaide Hospital. For the past 6 years Grace was very much involved in the pastoral life of the parish. We are surely, going to miss her in the parish. At this time let me, on behalf of all, thank you Grace for all that you were in the parish and all that you did for the life of the parish. Our feelings of loss turns to joy when we know that you are going to add joy into the lives of many whom you will visit in the Royal Adelaide Hospital as the Chaplain. Our prayer is that God may continue to bless you, keep you safe and cheerful and may he work miracles of God through you to all who need it especially the sick and dying at the Royal Adelaide Hospital to whom you will be ministering. Once again Thank you and God bless you....

Gospel Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

The Gospel is telling us how the disciples were learning from Jesus how to go about the task of spreading the Good News of God’s love and peace. This was a new job for the disciples and Jesus was teaching them what to do and what to take with them on the road. Jesus was teaching them not to take with them as they travelled. Jesus was teaching the disciples that they did not have to worry about material things too much but to spread the Good News.

We can do this too, just by the way we live our lives. We don’t need to have lots of money or own lots of things to bring God’s love and peace to others.

Prayer:

Lord, we pray for everyone who shares your message Of love and peace with the world. Amen

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL

You must show them affection, serving them from the Heart, inquiring of them what they might need, speaking to them gently and compassionately.

Sister Rosalie Rendu

Last week we had 5 calls with 10 Adults and 12 Children all needing help with Food, 2 needing Warm Clothing and 1 needing Blankets. The cold weather really hits these Families and makes us realise how lucky we are to be able to get into a warm bed at night. A special "Thank You" to all who supported our Winter Appeal. The amount raised was $2290. This money all goes to supporting families/people in need within our Parish boundaries.

Our Pantry needs this week at St John XXIII are:
 Breakfast Cereal, Vegemite 220grms and Coffee.

Thank you and God Bless

CONFIRMATION & HOLY EUCHARIST

The Confirmation and Holy Eucharist Sacrament nights were absolutely wonderful. Archbishop officiated the Sacrament of Confirmation and there were many families and friends in attendance. The Children's Choir from St Francis Xavier was a pure delight. Angela Coon organised and practised with these children for weeks. We would like to thank the families who came out and braved the freezing cold weather. We would like to thank the parishioners who helped in the kitchen and prepared the supper. The evening was truly filled with the Holy Spirit and the support of all was very much appreciated.

Holy Eucharist Sacrament mass at St John XXIII was one that I will not forget. Gleeson College Students and the Aprim, Adam Cubich prepared the Liturgy. The Gleeson Students had weeks of practice singing under the guidance of their Music Director, Carley. Thanks to Michael Flavel for connecting us with Gleeson College again this year.

Fr Manu and I were amazed with the amount of people who came to the 6pm Mass. Every seat was used and there were many people standing. We had one child for Holy Trinity on Sunday. Receiving Holy Eucharist for the first time for these children is so special and quite emotional. I saw many parents with tears in their eyes as they experienced their children receive the Holy Eucharist for the first time.

These celebrations were truly blessed and inspiring.

Thank you once again to the people helping with serving refreshments and cleaning up afterwards. We could not do it without you.

On behalf of Fr Manu

Grace Healey Pastoral Associate.
