Treasures in Heaven...

The readings of today invite us to have proper priorities in our lives and invite us to place our trust in God. Today's First Reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes teaches us how to find meaning in life and gives us the understanding that all things in this life, the pleasures as well as the sufferings are empty and purposeless. The wisdom writer says that life on earth is a succession of trials and troubles, labour and lamentations, folly and frustrations. But if the world is seen in the light of God's revelation, it is a gift of God to man, the most useful and necessary gift. It is a bridge between our earthly and eternal life. It is different for those who toil Spiritually. Their recompense is being accumulated in Heaven, their rewards awaiting them on judgment day. Their spiritual treasures will never depart from them. In the Second Reading Paul advice the Colossian Community that they must look for the things of heaven where Christ is. He wanted all thoughts to be centred on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth. Jesus exemplified this point by telling the story of the rich fool who was totally involved with material things. The rich man in the story was a fool not because he was wealthy but because he thought that he could guarantee his own personal security through the hoarding of his harvest without placing his trust in God. This man had wrong priorities. The first was that he never saw beyond himself. His plan of life was a constant repetition of me and me alone. He never went beyond himself to look towards the well-being of his neighbours and share with those less fortunate. He was extremely selfish. The man's second wrong priority was that he never saw beyond this world. His whole basis of security was his wealth. The message is loud and clear that since life does not consist in the abundance of possessions, we need to look for the spiritual life by accumulating spiritual treasures in Heaven. This can be done by our acts of love towards others, by our acts of charity, through the goodness that we manifest towards our neighbours in the love of Jesus. Let us always remember that what we do for others, we do for Christ.

Sister Rosalie Rendu

Only 3 Calls last week, with 5 Adults all needing help with food and one needing warm clothing. We are always humbled by the support we receive from within our Parish, as always our Grateful Thanks. Our Pantry needs this week at St John XXIII are: Tea Bags, Margarine & Tinned Carrots.

We have 3 Major Fund Raisers each year, our Winter Appeal, our Badge Day & our Christmas Appeal. We rely on these 3 events for our financial needs in the work we do with the needy in our Parish, unfortunately this year, for various reasons, we have been unable to get approval from any of the local Shopping Centres to sell Badges, so hence no Badge Day this year. We therefore ask you to remember our Poor Box which is on the wall above our Food Basket in the Foyer. We would Greatly Appreciate your Donations to our cause.

Thank You and God Bless
