Called and Commissioned to Share the Mission of Christ

Jesus, like the prophets before Him, was rejected by the people of his hometown as he corrected them for their prejudice. But instead of getting discouraged, Jesus went with his disciples to the neighbouring towns and villages with his preaching and healing ministry.

He prepared his disciples to go ahead of him to various places to announce his coming and to preach the Good News of the salvation coming through their master, Jesus. Today's Gospel describes for us the instruction Jesus gave his disciples for their first mission.

Why did Jesus send the Apostles in pairs? Because according to Jewish law, two witnesses were needed to pronounce a truth. Going two by two carries with it the authority of official witnesses. By his instructions, it is clear that Jesus meant that his disciples should take no supplies for the road but simply trust in God for their requirements. God, the Provider, would open the hearts of believers to take care of the needs of the disciples. Jesus' instructions also suggest that his disciples should not be like the acquisitive priests of the day, who were interested only in gaining riches. Instead, the disciples of Jesus must be concerned with "giving" rather than "getting." They should be walking examples of God's love and providence. By doing so, they would be fully free without any burdens in their preaching and healing ministry.

Jesus wanted his apostles to be rich in all the things which really mattered, so that they might enrich those who came into contact with them. Statistics tell us that most people who come to join a Church do so because a friend or relative brought them. So, the best advertisement for any Church is the number of the faithful; men, women, and children, whose daily lives show forth some of the radiance of the Gospel.

Jesus' disciples were to preach the Good News that God is not a punishing judge, but rather a loving Father who wants to save his people from their bondage to sin through Jesus His Son. The disciples were to preach the message of or repentance which has disturbing implications. To "repent" means to change one's mind and then fit one's actions to this change. It can also mean taking a new direction. Thus, repentance means a change of heart and a change of action; a change from a self-centred life to a God-centred life. It is also interesting to note that Jesus commanded his disciples to anoint with oil. In the ancient world, oil was regarded as a sort of cure-all.

We, too, like the apostles, have a witnessing mission. Each Christian is called not only to be a disciple but also to be an apostle. As disciples, we are to follow Jesus and imitate Jesus. As apostles, we are to evangelize the world. We are called to share with others not just words, or ideas, or doctrines but an experience, our experience of God and His Son, Jesus. Like the apostles, we are all chosen and sent to proclaim the Gospel through our living. It is through our transparent Christian lives that we must show in our own actions the love, mercy and concern of Jesus for the people around us. Since we are baptized, Jesus is calling us in our working and living environment to evangelize, to invite people to know Jesus, to love him, to serve him and to follow him. An important part of evangelism is the simple act of inviting a friend or family member to join us in worship. This is where reconciliation between persons and God is most likely to take place. We do not have to commit verbal assault on someone with our convictions. A simple invitation offered out of a loving and joyful heart is the most powerful evangelistic message of all.

Like the apostles we too have a liberating mission. Although many people don't believe in real demonic possession in our age, there are many demons which can control the lives of people around us making them helpless slaves. For example, there are the demons of drug, alcohol, gambling, pornography, materialism and consumerism, or of any other activity which somehow can take control of people's lives and become an addiction over which they have no control. All of these, or any one of them, can turn people into slaves. We need the help of Jesus to liberate us and others from these things. Jesus is inviting us today to cooperate with him. He wants us to be his instruments of liberation, to help others recover their freedom. As a family member, a friend, a colleague, an evangelizer, when we work with Jesus, we can truly have a healing and liberating influence.

St Vincent De Paul Modbury Conference

Lord God, our help and guide, make your love the foundation of our lives. May our love for you express itself in our eagerness to do good for other people.

Our Pantry needs at St John XXIII this week are:-
Sugar [1kg], Table Margarine & Toilet Soap.

Last week 6 families [11 adults & 5 children] asked for assistance, all needing food.

We are grateful to the members of St Francis Xavier's School, Wynn Vale.

Last week they donated well in excess of $2,000 worth of non perishable food to the St. Vincent De Paul cause. This has been divided between the Para Hills & Modbury Conferences. We especially thank the Staff & Parents for encouraging the children in this spirit of giving to those in need.

During the winter the calls for help are always increased, so this generous donation will be of great help in filling those needs. We will continue, as usual, at St John XXIII, to ask for our pantry needs each week.

*With much appreciation for your generosity from :-
Para Hills & Modbury Conferences. God Bless.*

We are in urgent need of volunteers to assist with counting the money from the two collections after each Mass on the weekends.

Counters work in teams of 3 – 4 people and generally will be rostered on for one Sunday each month. Counters need to be confident in counting and recording cash.

Training in the systems used will be provided. Counting takes place following each Sunday Mass at Holy Trinity and St John XXIII and usually takes about 30 minutes to complete.

Please consider giving some of your time for this task, which, while not difficult, is essential to the smooth running of the parish.

In line with Archdiocesan policy all volunteers will be required to undergo a Police Check
