5.1	Parish Review Original document revised in light of Plenary Council in Adelaide in 2020, Diocesan Visitation program and Renewal Program – see pages 4 & 5. Fr Manu and other key planners believe that all parishioners will be reached to get a truly reflective review of all aspects of the parish.
5.2	Plenary Council 2020: It is hoped by the Australian Bishops Conference that the plenary will be open and soul-searching as was Vatican II. PPC will invite parishioners to participate in small group discussions in preparing for the Council. PPC members were asked to take a lead in hosting small group discussions. Parishioners can also take part in the survey on-line. Resolved that PPC hold a meeting to demonstrate hosting a Listening & Dialogue group at 7.30 PM, Wednesday, July 18 at H.T with invitation issued to interested parishioners.
ite5.3	Fr Jack’s Jubilee: Preparations in hand and resolved that existing parish Mass times stay in place for that day. A special Mass for Fr Jack will be celebrated at H.T. at 12 md on September 9.

5.4	Craft Fair Update As requested by Helen Podgorski, PPC has contacted schools inviting them to perform at Craft Fair. Acceptances have been received from SFX and Kildare, still waiting to hear from Gleeson and St Paul's
