Committed to Christian Prayer and Christian Action

In the gospel of today we have the sending out of the seventy-two disciples. This is very unique. All the gospels mention the twelve disciples and them being commissioned by Jesus to continue his mission.

However, it is only Luke who makes a reference to the sending out of the seventy-two disciples. There must be a reason for this. Jesus says that the harvest is big and there are not enough people to do the necessary work. In the same manner Luke wants to tell us that the mission of Jesus is not only carried forward by the priests and religious but it is the responsibility of every believer in Jesus. This is what the Vatican II expressed when it said that it is the right and duty of every baptised person to preach the gospel.

What is the reason for lay involvement in the spreading of the gospel? Because "The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few." (Luke 10:2). This is as true in today's context as it was in the days of Jesus. Jesus sends us out with twofold responsibilities.

First of all; "ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest", This means prayer.

Secondly; "Go on your way. See, I am sending you.

This means active involvement. Pray as if everything depended on God, work at it as if everything depended on your contribution. Christian discipleship calls for both prayer and action. Praying together as a community of true followers of Christ and then working together as a community of followers of Christ.

This obviously is not going to be easy as it is very revolutionary and counter cultural. To be a disciple and witness of Christ is to imitate the model of Christ. It is not easy to respond with forgiveness when we have received hurt and injury. It is not easy to keep persevering in the midst of so much uncertainty and upheaval. It's not that easy to keep being a source of hope when surrounded by the limitations of being human. Nevertheless, these very moments are the moments of great significance which leave a long-lasting effect. This is the reason why we cannot live our Christian faith on our own. This is therefore the reason why we need to be together as a parish and as a diocese. To be able to put into practice the mission of Jesus we need support and being part of a team.

There is room for everybody and we all have gifts, talents and qualities which help in the building up of our local parish community. Today we need to consider this gospel as an invitation to take an active part in the life of the parish. Every little gesture of kindness, every single act of service to others, every little word of encouragement helps us to become very aware of our mission and gives us the necessary impetus to believe, pray and act.

Yes, we are all called to participate in the spreading of the message of Christ through a commitment of prayer and a commitment of action. Many of us would remember when no automatic dishwashers were there at home.

After each meal ... "NO, it's YOUR turn to wash...HER turn to dry and MY turn to put the dishes away ... always the bickering about whose job it was to do. It's the same with the church as well. Our church is a family, just like our own individual family. Unless everyone takes up some part of the task, things just don't get accomplished. We all are members of one family. Let us then, pray together and work together.

Lord your timeless lesson sings out in the voice of constant waves, in the wind through the trees and in the harmonies of life. Wash clean our ears to hear you, make us listen now, for we need your great wisdom to assist us in our life. Amen.

Back to "normal" this last week with four calls for assistance to the 1300 729 202 number in State Office, mainly for food but also included requests for clothing; one call for furniture from a mature age Indian student couple whose visa doesn't allow a working income.

Pantry needs this week are:

Coffee, Cereal, Tinned Meat and Tinned Mixed Vegetables .

Many thanks for your ongoing support. It will greatly help if any or all of these items could be placed in the Vinnies' collection basket.

Thank you and God Bless
